NCU Global Young Investigator Forum 2018 on “Regulatory Mechanisms of Epigenetic Information and Their Clinical Applications”

Date: Mar. 16 Fri, 2018; 9:00am–18:30pm

Venue: Room A, Medical Research Bldg. 11F, Graduate School of Medicine, Nagoya City University.
(Sakurayama Campus; 1, Kawasumi, Mizuho-cho, Mizuho-ku, Nagoya 467-8601, Japan.)

Call for Poster presentations:

In this symposium, multidisciplinary scientific topics will be discussed on the epigenetic regulation of gene expression and biological responses in the poster session. Poster presentations are invited in the wide field from molecular biology and genetic to clinical applications, including biology, chemistry, and medicine, in the fields related to epigenetics.

Presenters for poster presentations will be requested to give a 4-minute short presentation at their posters during poster viewing time.

For submission to poster presentation, please follow the process showing below.

How to submit your abstract

A. Prepare the following formats for submission to poster presentation

1. Form 1 (Excel file) including your submission information
2. Abstract file in MS Word format
3. Abstract file in PDF (note that this is exactly same as the MS Word file)

B. Send the required formats (3 files) via E-mail as attachment files.
